

General Terms and Conditions

Applicable to the trade names Intunity and Maurice Spees

Version 1.0 · Effective from 19-08-2026 · Last amended 19-08-2026

These General Terms and Conditions describe the rights and obligations of Intunity and the Client or Participant when entering into and performing an agreement.

In these terms and conditions, “Intunity” means the sole proprietorship Intunity, established in Lochem, registered with the Dutch Chamber of Commerce (Kamer van Koophandel) under number 51806088, also trading under the trade name Maurice Spees.

Intunity may offer its services through, among others, Intunity.co and mauricespees.com.

CONTACT DETAILS

Intunity	EMAIL	maurice@intunity.co
Maurice Spees	TELEPHONE	0613393655
Zutphenseweg 115a	KVK	51806088
7241 SC Lochem	VAT ID	NL001889433B52
The Netherlands

The trade name under which a specific service is offered does not alter the fact that the agreement is entered into with the sole proprietorship Intunity.

CHAPTER 1

General provisions

Article 1 · Definitions

1. Intunity: the sole proprietorship Intunity, established in Lochem, Chamber of Commerce number 51806088, also trading under the trade name Maurice Spees.
2. Client: the natural person or legal entity entering into an agreement with Intunity.
3. Participant: the natural person participating in a session, ceremony, workshop, immersion, retreat, sound journey or other experience.
4. Session: an individual meeting, conducted in person, in nature or online.
5. Ceremony: a ceremonial gathering conducted by Intunity, whether or not involving psilocybin-containing truffles (sclerotia).
6. Immersion: a group workshop, immersion, retreat, sound journey or comparable group gathering.
7. Facilitator: Maurice Spees and, where applicable, a co-facilitator engaged by Intunity.
8. Agreement: any agreement between Intunity and the Client or Participant concerning the provision of services.

Article 2 · Applicability

1. These terms and conditions apply to all agreements, activities and services of Intunity, under the trade names Intunity and Maurice Spees.
2. These terms and conditions are made available to the Client before or at the time the agreement is entered into, so that the Client has the opportunity to read and retain them.
3. By entering into an agreement, the Client confirms that these terms and conditions have been received and that the Client has had the opportunity to review them.
4. Deviations from these terms and conditions are valid only if agreed in writing in advance.
5. The applicability of the Client's own general terms and conditions is excluded, unless otherwise agreed in writing.
6. If any provision of these terms and conditions is void or annulled, the remaining provisions shall remain in full force. In such a case, the parties shall agree on a replacement provision that comes as close as reasonably possible to the intention of the original provision.
7. Intunity may amend these terms and conditions. For agreements already entered into, an amendment shall apply only insofar as legally permitted and provided that the amendment does not result in unreasonable detriment to the Client or Participant.

Article 3 · Quotations and Offers

1. Quotations and offers from Intunity contain a description of the service offered, the price and, where relevant, the duration and other important terms and conditions.
2. A quotation is valid for the period stated therein. If no period is specified, the quotation expires one month after the date it was sent.
3. An agreement is concluded as soon as the Client accepts Intunity's offer and Intunity has confirmed this acceptance, or when Intunity begins performance with the Client's consent.
4. Intunity may correct an obvious error or typographical mistake in an offer.
5. Where the nature of the assignment gives reason to do so, work outside the original scope may be performed as additional work following prior discussion with the Client.

Article 4 · Performance

1. Intunity shall perform the agreement to the best of its knowledge, ability and care.
2. The agreement is, in principle, an obligation of best efforts. Intunity does not guarantee that any particular personal, spiritual, emotional or other result will be achieved.
3. The work of Intunity does not constitute medical, psychiatric or psychological treatment. Intunity does not provide medical or psychological diagnoses and does not replace regular medical or psychological care.
4. The Participant remains responsible for their own choices, boundaries and wellbeing.
5. Intunity may engage co-facilitators or other third parties in performing the agreement.
6. Confidentiality applies to personal and ceremonial work. Intunity will not share personal information or information about participation with third parties without consent, unless disclosure is required by law.
7. If circumstances arise during the performance of the agreement that reasonably prevent the agreement from being carried out, the parties shall consult with one another to seek an appropriate solution.

Article 5 • Payment

1. The Client shall pay the amounts within the payment periods stated on the invoice, booking page or agreement.
2. If no other payment period has been agreed, an invoice must be paid within thirty days of the invoice date.
3. If a deposit has been agreed, Intunity shall begin preparation for the relevant service after the deposit has been received.
4. In the event of late payment, Intunity may, following any legally required payment reminder or formal notice of default, charge statutory interest and legally permitted extrajudicial collection costs.
5. Any objection to an invoice should be submitted as soon as possible. To the extent permitted by law, an objection does not suspend the payment obligation.

Article 6 • Confidentiality

1. Intunity shall treat personal information provided in connection with sessions, ceremonies and other personal services confidentially.
2. Personal information shall not be used for publicity or commercial purposes without consent.
3. This obligation does not apply where disclosure is necessary pursuant to a legal obligation.

Article 7 • Recordings and Produced Work This article applies to recordings, compositions, personal sound transmissions and other produced materials supplied by Intunity.

1. Delivery times are determined to the best of Intunity's ability and shall not constitute strict deadlines unless otherwise agreed in writing.
2. If a draft or preliminary version is provided, the Client may submit reasonable corrections or amendments within the agreed period.
3. A personal recording specifically created for a Client is, in principle, intended for personal use.
4. Publication, commercial exploitation or large-scale distribution of personally produced material is permitted only where agreed in writing.

Article 8 • Intellectual Property

1. All copyrights and other intellectual property rights in recordings, compositions, texts, teaching materials, ceremony concepts, methodologies, documentation and other creative works developed by Intunity shall remain with Intunity or its licensors.
2. Sacred Voice Alchemy, SoulTuner and EntheoSonic are used by Intunity as designations of its own work and methodologies, insofar as these rights are legally registered or otherwise protected.
3. Participation in a session, ceremony, workshop or immersion does not grant any right to independently teach, copy or commercially offer the methodologies, materials or concepts used therein.
4. Participants receive only those rights of use that have been expressly agreed or arise directly from the law.

Article 9 • Recordings and Photography

1. Making audio or video recordings or taking photographs during a session, ceremony or immersion is not permitted without the prior consent of Intunity and, where relevant, the other participants present.
2. If Intunity itself wishes to take photographs or recordings for documentation, communication or publication, prior consent shall be requested, unless such consent is not legally required.

3. A Participant may refuse consent to the use of identifiable image material or, where legally permitted, withdraw such consent.

Article 10 • Complaints

1. Complaints may be submitted in writing via maurice@intunity.co.
2. Intunity asks Participants to report a complaint as soon as possible after discovering the issue, so that it can be carefully investigated.
3. Intunity aims to provide a substantive response to a complaint within fourteen days.
4. Submitting a complaint does not limit the statutory rights of a consumer.

Article 11 • Force Majeure

1. Intunity shall not be obliged to perform an obligation if it is prevented from doing so by circumstances that are reasonably beyond its control.
2. Force majeure may include, among other things: illness or incapacity of Maurice Spees, serious technical problems, government measures, natural disasters, serious disruption of transportation, or other circumstances that reasonably make performance impossible.
3. During a force majeure situation, obligations may be suspended.
4. If a session, ceremony or immersion cannot proceed due to force majeure, Intunity shall, where possible, offer a new date.
5. If no suitable replacement date can be found, the amount relating to services not yet performed shall be refunded to the extent required by law.

Article 12 • Cancellation and Termination

1. The specific cancellation terms set out in the chapters below apply to individual sessions, ceremonies and immersions.
2. Statutory consumer rights, including the statutory right of withdrawal where applicable, remain unaffected.
3. Intunity may terminate an agreement if performance is reasonably impossible, if the Participant fails to comply with essential safety requirements, or if circumstances arise that make participation reasonably deemed inappropriate or unsafe.
4. If Intunity terminates an agreement before the agreed service has been performed, the amount relating to the unperformed portion shall be refunded where and to the extent required by law or contract.

Article 13 • Liability

1. Intunity shall perform its services with due care.
2. Intunity shall not be liable for damage that is solely the result of choices or actions of the Participant that fall outside the sphere of influence of Intunity.
3. Participants are required to provide relevant information that is reasonably necessary for the safe performance of the agreement.
4. Intunity shall not be liable for damage resulting from incorrect or incomplete information provided by the Participant, insofar as such damage was reasonably caused by that information.
5. Any limitation of liability shall apply only to the extent permitted by law.

6. No provision in these terms and conditions shall limit liability for damage for which liability may not legally be excluded or limited under mandatory law.

Article 14 • Governing Law

1. Agreements between Intunity and the Client are governed by Dutch law.
2. For consumers, a choice of law shall not deprive them of the protection afforded by mandatory provisions that would apply in the absence of such a choice of law.
3. Disputes shall preferably first be resolved through mutual consultation.
4. If a dispute cannot be resolved amicably, it shall be submitted to the court having jurisdiction under the applicable statutory rules.

CHAPTER 2

Individual sessions and transmissions

These provisions apply to individual sessions, including Voice Alchemy sessions and Sacred Attunement Transmissions.

1. Sessions are booked by appointment.
2. A session may be cancelled or rescheduled free of charge up to 48 hours before the agreed time.
3. In the event of cancellation within 48 hours of the agreed time, 50% of the agreed fee may be charged.
4. In the event of cancellation within 24 hours of the agreed time or failure to attend, the full agreed fee may be charged, insofar as legally permitted.
5. If a new session is booked within the same month, Intunity may offset part of the cancellation fee against the new booking. The conditions for this will be confirmed at the time of the new booking.
6. If a series of sessions has been paid for in advance, unused sessions remain valid for twelve months from the date of the first session, unless otherwise agreed in writing.

CHAPTER 3

Statutory right of withdrawal for distance contracts

1. When a consumer enters into an agreement with Intunity at a distance, for example via the internet or email, a statutory right of withdrawal of 14 days may apply.
2. For an agreement concerning a service, the statutory withdrawal period generally begins on the day the agreement is concluded.
3. Where the right of withdrawal applies, the consumer may withdraw from the agreement within the statutory period without giving a reason.
4. Withdrawal may be communicated by: Email: maurice@intunity.co or through the withdrawal function available on the website, where applicable.
5. If the consumer expressly requests that a service begin during the statutory withdrawal period, Intunity may begin performing the service.

6. If the consumer subsequently withdraws during the statutory withdrawal period, the consumer may be required to pay a proportionate amount for the part of the service already performed, insofar as permitted by law and provided that the consumer was properly informed of this right beforehand.
 7. For certain services, the statutory right of withdrawal may be wholly or partially excluded where the legal conditions for an exception are met. Any such exception shall be clearly communicated to the consumer before the agreement is concluded.
 8. Statutory provisions concerning withdrawal take precedence over any conflicting provisions in these General Terms and Conditions.
-

CHAPTER 4

Ceremonies

These provisions apply to ceremonies conducted by Intunity, including EntheoSonic ceremonies.

Preparation and Screening

1. An intake and screening process may take place before participation in a ceremony.
2. During this screening, questions may be asked about physical and psychological health, medication use, substance use and previous experiences with psychedelics or other consciousness-altering substances.
3. Participants are required to provide this information truthfully insofar as it is relevant to the safety of participation.
4. Intunity may refuse participation where, based on the information available, it reasonably considers participation to be inappropriate or unsafe.
5. Where participation is refused before the ceremony for safety reasons, any amount already paid shall be refunded to the extent required by law. A reasonable amount for work already performed may be charged where this was agreed in advance and is legally permitted.

Psilocybin-Containing Truffles

6. Where psilocybin-containing truffles (sclerotia) are present as part of a ceremonial programme, participation in their use is not mandatory.
7. Participation in a ceremony and the use of any substance offered are two separate choices.
8. Participants shall be informed in advance about the nature of the programme and relevant safety considerations.
9. Participants are required to follow the safety instructions provided before and during the ceremony.
10. Intunity reserves the right to end or discontinue a Participant's participation in a ceremony where, in its reasonable judgment, this is necessary for the safety of the Participant or others.

During and After the Ceremony

11. Participants remain responsible for their own choices and actions during and after the ceremony.
12. Where a Participant has used psilocybin, they may not drive a vehicle or operate machinery for at least 24 hours after ingestion. If the circumstances require a longer period, the Participant must comply with that longer period.
13. Participants are responsible for arranging suitable transportation and, where necessary, overnight accommodation in advance.

14. Integration support may form part of the agreed programme.
15. Participation in a ceremony does not replace medical, psychiatric or psychological treatment.

Payment and Cancellation of Ceremonies

16. Intunity may require a deposit. The amount of the deposit shall be clearly stated in advance.
17. Because a ceremony is personally prepared and time is reserved exclusively, the following cancellation terms apply, insofar as legally permitted:
 - more than 6 weeks in advance: administration fee of €250 excluding VAT;
 - 6 to 4 weeks in advance: 25% of the agreed amount;
 - 4 to 2 weeks in advance: 50%;
 - 2 to 1 week in advance: 75%;
 - less than 7 days in advance: 100%.
18. These cancellation terms do not affect any applicable statutory right of withdrawal.
19. If Intunity has to cancel or postpone a ceremony, a new date shall be offered where possible.
20. If no suitable new date can be found, the amount relating to services not performed shall be refunded to the extent required by law.

CHAPTER 5

Immersion, retreats and sound journeys

These provisions apply to group workshops, immersion, retreats and sound journeys.

1. The specific date, duration, location, price and content of each immersion or retreat shall be stated in the relevant offer.
2. Cancellation must be made in writing by email.
3. The date on which Intunity receives the cancellation shall be considered the cancellation date.
4. To the extent legally permitted, the following cancellation percentages apply:
 - more than 6 weeks in advance: no charge;
 - 6 to 4 weeks in advance: 15%;
 - 4 to 2 weeks in advance: 30%;
 - 2 to 1 week in advance: 75%;
 - 7 to 2 days in advance: 100%.
5. Cancellations within 48 hours before the start of the event or failure to attend shall be considered very short-notice cancellations and may, to the extent legally permitted, result in the full amount being charged.
6. If a minimum number of Participants is stated as a condition for the event to proceed and this number is not reached, Intunity may cancel the event.
7. If Intunity cancels an event due to insufficient Participants, the amount already paid for the cancelled event shall be refunded.
8. If an immersion or retreat is organised as part of an event organised by a third party, the terms and conditions of that organiser shall also apply to participation in that event.
9. These General Terms and Conditions continue to apply to the services provided by Intunity.
10. Where an immersion or retreat is conducted together with a co-facilitator, the agreement shall be entered into with Intunity, unless otherwise agreed in writing in advance.

CHAPTER 6

Work offered as a gift

1. Certain forms of sound support around the end of life may be offered by Intunity as a gift.
2. Where such a service is expressly offered free of charge, no payment obligation arises.
3. Where a service is offered in exchange for a voluntary contribution or donation, it shall be clearly stated in advance whether this constitutes a voluntary contribution or an agreed fee.
4. The other provisions of these terms and conditions remain applicable insofar as they are appropriate to the nature of the free service.

CHAPTER 7

Final provisions

1. These General Terms and Conditions are made available to the Client before or at the time the agreement is concluded and can be retained by the Client.
2. The most recent version of these General Terms and Conditions is available through the websites of Intunity and/or Maurice Spees.
3. If any provision of these terms and conditions conflicts with mandatory law, the mandatory law shall prevail.
4. The remaining provisions shall remain fully effective.

Version 1.0 · Effective from 19-08-2026 · Last amended 19-08-2026

Intunity — Maurice Spees · Lochem, The Netherlands · Chamber of Commerce (KvK) 51806088 · maurice@intunity.co · 0613393655